

THE McCLELLAND SCHOOL
A PUEBLO TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

Long Term Art Substitute

The McClelland School is seeking long term, part time, art teacher substitute for the 2022-23 school year. The successful candidate will be flexible and understand the developmental needs of students, preschool through eighth grade, and teach with charisma, humor, energy, and interest in connecting and inspiring children.

Requirements:

- Work with the current art teacher to implement established curriculum.
- Continue traditions that are an important part of the McClelland Community
- Creativity and passion to make big themes come alive
- Enthusiasm for working with children
- Sound judgment and emotional maturity
- Ability and comfort to write narrative assessments
- Communicate with parents effectively and proactively
- Manage student behavior conducive to a positive learning environment
- Demonstrate cultural competence, both in and outside of classroom
- Act in a manner consistent with professional conduct
- Ability to work with technology to support, supplement and enhance teaching and learning
- Communicate, work cooperatively and collaborate with specialty teachers, administration, and other colleagues
- Work with colleagues to ensure school initiatives are being met
- Maintain gradebooks, attendance and all student records
- Attend and participate at faculty meetings and in-services
- Willingness to engage in all aspects of the McClelland Community

Interested candidates should submit resume and references to the Head of School, Jo Nesbit via the email address jnesbit@mcclellandschool.org.
